

The 2008 Kenai Peninsula Air Fair Committee wishes to thank the following businesses/organizations for their help & generous support:

Alaska Airmen's Association
Alaska Flying Network
Alaska Aviation Heritage Museum
Alaska West Air
Alaska Oil Sales
Alaska Sea Life Center
Asplund Supply
Avis
Beacon Occupational Health & Safety
Bush Cat LLC
Challenger Learning Center of Alaska
Charlotte's
City of Kenai, Mayor Pat Porter & Airport Commission
City of Soldotna, Mayor Carey & Airport Commission
Crowley Petroleum Services
Era Aviation
Evert's Air Fuel
Experimental Aircraft Association
GCI, Inc.
Grant Aviation
Home Depot
Jersey Subs
Kaladi Brothers
Kenai Airport Lodge
Kenai Aviation
Kenai Flight Service Station
Kenai Peninsula Emergency Services
Kenai Landing
Land's End Resort
Peninsula Aero Tech
Renown Tours
Subway of Kenai
Swiftwater Bill – Bill Toppa
Taurianinen Engineering & Testing
Uptown Hotel

A very special thank you to our military:

211th RQS - Kulis Air Guard Base
USCG Air Station Kodiak
Alaska Army Guard & Army Reserve
144th Airlift – Kulis

And the many individuals who make the Kenai Peninsula a great place to fly and live!
Thanks for joining us today.

Be sure to get a weather briefing and we recommend that you file a flight plan.